BEST MONSOON TRAVEL DESTINATIONS IN INDIA

1. Matheran – The Car-Free Hill Station

Matheran, just a few hours from Mumbai, is India's only no-vehicle hill station. With scenic walking trails, horse rides, and viewpoints like Panorama and Louisa Point, it offers pure peace without the noise of traffic. A must-visit for nature lovers.

2. Lonavala – Monsoon's Favourite Destination

Lonavala turns into a lush paradise during the rainy season. Explore Bushi Dam, Tiger Point, Karla Caves, and Rajmachi Fort, or just enjoy the foggy roads and roadside corn. It's one of the most loved quick weekend getaways from Pune and Mumbai.

3. Mahabaleshwar – The Queen of the Sahyadris

Known for strawberries, lakes, and mist-covered hills, Mahabaleshwar is a blend of scenic beauty, adventure, and heritage. Take a boat ride on Venna Lake, visit Mapro Garden, and enjoy the views from Wilson Point and Elephant's Head.

4. Mount Abu – The Hill Station of Rajasthan

The only hill station in Rajasthan, Mount Abu offers a surprising escape with its cool climate, heritage temples, and lakeside views. Visit the spectacular Dilwara Temples, Nakki Lake, and Sunset Point — ideal for couples and families alike.

5. Saputara – Gujarat's Hidden Hill Station

Located in the Dang district, Saputara is Gujarat's only hill station and a lesser-known gem. It offers a calm atmosphere with attractions like Saputara Lake, Sunset Point, Artist Village, and ropeway rides. A perfect place to unwind and reconnect with nature.
